1. How did you first get into horse racing? My dad started taking me to the track at the State Fair when I was 12 years old.

2. Have you ever qualified for the DRF/NTRA NHC? Yes, just qualified for the NHC last weekend and qualified/competed last year by winning a tournament on TwinSpires as well.

3. What is your best finish in a handicapping tournament, and what is your largest tournament payout? $200,000; also won Cal-Neva twice for $50,000 each time.

4. What wager created the largest payout for you? Please elaborate on the circumstances (date, track, etc.)? Pick 6 at Hollywood Park, but I wasn't at the track, won via satellite wagering.

5. Do you have any interesting hobbies, experiences or past accomplishments that others might find unique or interesting? I've been a horse owner as well as a handicapper for many years and have been fortunate to win a number of big races/Stakes races with horses such as Jet West and Withholding Info.

6. Does anyone else in your family share your enthusiasm as a horseplayer? Yes, my son has developed the 'habit' now as well.

7. What would you do with the NHC grand prize if you won? Give it to my kids and their families.

8. Which person in Thoroughbred racing would you most like to have dinner with? Gary Stevens

9. Who is your favorite horse racing writer (or favorite publication/website)? A DRF user/reader for many years, enjoy tournaments online at Twinspires and Ellis Park Site among others.
