Players keep all winnings in their wagering card. You must be 18 years of age to enter this contest and be eligible for prize money.

2023 NHC Seats: The top two finishers at the end of the contest will receive entry into the 2023 NTRA National Handicapping Championship, courtesy of Los Alamitos Race Course. You must be 21 years of age to receive entry into NHC. Hotel room and airfare to Las Vegas are included. If for any reason one of the top two finishers cannot attend or is not eligible for the National Handicapping Championship, the next highest placing finisher in the contest will receive the entry.

IMPORTANT: Individual contestants are not eligible to win more than one of the berths to the 2023 NTRA National Handicapping Championship offered in this contest.

6. Player Wagering Cards:

Each participant will be issued a player card per entry purchased to use for all wagers for that specific entry. The card will be loaded with a live bankroll of $400. If a player's card is not working, the player should immediately report to the contest officials to receive a new card. Los Alamitos Racing Association tournament officials are not responsible for lost or stolen cards. Los Alamitos is not responsible for any races missed due to malfunction, lost card, races starting while in the middle of a transaction, or any type of technical issue with a self-service betting machine. Multiple entries cannot be combined for any reason and misuse of the card is subject to disqualification.

7. Placing Wagers:

All wagers must be placed through self-service machines. Wagers will not be accepted through mutual tellers. Players must place all wagers personally. No person shall directly or indirectly act as an intermediary, transmitter, or agent in placing wagers for the player.

All official track rulings will apply to wagers placed in the tournament except as otherwise stipulated. The tournament will be based on official's placement and mutuels at Los Alamitos. If a player wagers on a track other than Los Alamitos. for purposes of this contest, the player will be disqualified.

Should a player load more than $400 onto their card, that player may be disqualified from any prize money and prizes. With any type of disqualification, no refund of entry fee(s) shall be given. Contestants who play fewer than four races will be disqualified from the contest. Please note that for the purposes of this contest, a Daily Double wager counts as wagering on one race.

8. Advance Wagering:

Advance wagering is not permitted unless prior approval has been obtained by a tournament official. Wagers for each race must be placed after the race prior has been declared official. This rule is designed to maintain an accurate leaderboard. If a player needs to advance wager, please contact a tournament official for a final decision. All decisions will be at the sole discretion of tournament officials.

9. Scratches:

If a horse is scratched after a wager is placed, it is the player's responsibility to change his/her selection prior to the race subject to all other contest wagering rules. If the scratch/scratches results in a player not meeting the contest requirements of the number of races played at the end of the contest, it will result in the player's disqualification from any prizes and prize money. The scratch rule will not affect the player's live money card balance.

10. IRS Withholding:

On winning wagers that result in a payoff at odds of 300 to 1 or greater AND pay over $5,000, IRS withholding will automatically be deducted from the player's card. Whereas, for contest scoring purposes, the gross amount (the pre-withholdings figure) of the winning wager will be recorded in the player's score. Please note for purposes of wagering in the contest, only the net amount (the amount received after the IRS withholding) will be available to the player.

11. Ties:

In a result of a tie between the top four finishing positions, the player with the highest total of money wagered will be declared the winner for the NHC qualifying purposes. If players wagered the same amount and finished with the same final bankroll, the player with the highest single race profit will win the tiebreaker and prizes that go with that finishing position. The next tiebreaker is the amount of money won in the final race of the contest. The next tiebreaker is the amount of money won in the next to last race of the contest and so on. The final tiebreaker will be decided by whoever registered for the contest first. Cash prizes will be split evenly for players finishing in a tie.

12. Contest Standings:

Contest standings will be posted timely, and at the discretion of the contest coordinator. Standings will appear on a dedicated in-house TV channel. Please inquire at the registration desk for channel number. The default channel for the standings is No. 19.

13. Ineligibility:

The following are ineligible to participate in this contest: employees of Los Alamitos Racing Association, Los Alamitos Quarter Horse Racing Association, Los Alamitos Race Course, Los Alamitos Food Services, employees of NHC, and all employees of AmTote, or any other of its subsidiaries.

14. Horse Ownership Disclosure & Wagering On A Competing Horse:

If anyone has any ownership interest in any horses running in any of the applicable tournament races, then all involvements must be fully disclosed to all players in the tournament.

Per Rule No. 1970 of the California Horse Racing Board: A contest player that has any ownership interest of a horse that is entered in a contest race shall not wager on, or include in any wager, any other horse competing in such race to finish first regardless of whether such wager is “exotic” or “conventional.”

The contest player may choose to skip the contest race that the horse they have ownership interest of is entered in, but the contest player must still meet the required bet minimums as explained above in Section 3 (Contest Format).

Should a contest player that has any ownership interest in a horse that is entered in a contest race fail to adhere to Rule No. 1970 of the California Horse Racing Board, that player’s entry will be disqualified from the contest.

If anyone serves as a jockey’s agent for a jockey or trains a horse participating in any of the races, then all involvements must be fully disclosed to all players in the tournament. If they do train a horse, or represent a jockey in a race, contestant cannot play that race in the contest.

14. Taxes:

Liability for any and all federal, state, and local taxes is solely the responsibility of prize winners.

15. Affidavits:

Affidavits confirming compliance of all the rules of this contest will be required of all finalists. The grand prize winner acknowledges that if they enter this contest under a fraudulent name and/or Social Security number, they will be immediately disqualified from this and all future contests held by Los Alamitos Race Course. Positive identification is required of all prize winners. Positive identification is a valid state driver’s license/id with a picture and the same address and birth date used on the entry forms, and/or such other form of identification as deemed adequate by contest officials. Social Security information is also the responsibility of the player.

16. 2023 NTRA National Handicapping Championship in Las Vegas Eligibility:
